Matters Reserved for the Governing Body of MIE

1. Introduction

In general, subject to the terms of its Instrument of Governance, the Governing Body (GB) of the Marino Institute of Education (MIE) may delegate such matters as it considers appropriate.

It is recognised that, in accordance with governance best practice, certain matters should be decided only by the GB.

This document is the formal schedule of matters specifically reserved for the GB's decision.

2. Schedule of Matters Reserved for the Governing Body

1.	Regulations and Control
1.1	Establish and review terms of reference and reporting arrangements of all sub-committees of GB, including any ad hoc committees. These include the Finance Committee , the Audit Committee, the Academic Council and the Standing Committee.
1.2	Registration as a charity and providing further information as required to the Charities Regulator.
1.3	Development and review of a Code of Governance for the Institute, which shall be in accordance with best practice.
1.4	Agree procedures for the effective evaluation of the Governing Body, its members and committees.
1.5	Make recommendations to the Trustees in relation to its membership or its Instrument of
	Governance.
2.	Appointments
2.1	Recruitment of staff, other than for temporary or short-term engagements will be subject to prior approval.
2.2	The positions noted in 2.1 above will be submitted to the GB for ratification.
2.3	Scales of pay grades and rates for staff of the Institute which are not in line with benchmarked equivalent HEI scales require advance approval at Governing Body.
3.	Strategic and Budgetary Matters
3.1	Responsible for the overall management of the Institute, ensuring compliance with its Instrument of Governance and relevant legislation.
3.2	Review, approve and monitor MIE's strategic direction through formal strategic planning at appropriate intervals.
3.3	Review and approve annual budgets and capital budgets* and any material changes to them.
3.4	*In accordance with its Instrument of Governance: 'In the case of any proposed major undertakings by the Institute in the grounds, buildings and facilities required by the work of the Institute, the GB must in the first instance make recommendations to the Trustees. The GB shall not embark on programmes of capital development exceeding €100,000 in value for the Institute without the prior approval of the Trustees.' Should the Instrument of Governance change in this regard or if MIE receives a derogation increasing this amount, MIE will adhere to the new guidance.

3.5	Opening of new bank accounts and the approval of the mandate and signatories for each bank account.
3.6	Decisions relating to court proceedings or potentially litigious matters, either against or on behalf of the Institute.
3.7	Authorisation of contracts not in the ordinary course of business or which are material strategically or by reason of size.
3.8	Establish and keep under review key organisational policies in accordance with legislation and best practice.
4.	External and Internal Audit Arrangements
4.1	Appointment or removal of internal and external auditors and approval of their remuneration.
4.3	Receive and note reports from the internal auditors and agree the proposed course of action, where appropriate.
